Re: Support of Christina Jackson for ICC Board

Dear Mr. Wich,

The national chapter of Women in Code Enforcement and Development (WICED) would like to send its support for Ms. Christina Jackson's candidacy to the ICC board of directors for positions of either Section E Director or Director At Large.

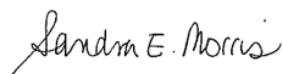

Ms. Jackson brings over 20 years of dedication and experience in the field of code enforcement and building safety. She has consistently shown her passion and dedication to advancement of women in the industry. She was a founding member of the first WICED state chapter, WICED of VA, and currently sits on the executive board of the national chapter. Ms. Jackson's drive and enthusiasm for the mission is unmatched and proven in her efforts to establish state or local WICED chapters across the nation.

Additionally, Ms. Jackson has demonstrated significant leadership experience while serving in various positions at the state and national level including VBCOA, WICED of VA, WICED, and ICC

Ms. Jackson's experience, and dedication to the industry makes her an ideal candidate. We are confident that her drive, enthusiasm, and commitment to the efforts of the industry will serve the International Code Council well.

On behalf of the national chapter of WICED we are pleased to support the candidacy of Ms. Christina Jackson to the board of the International Code Council.

Sandi Morris
