We have followed her remarkable career with great admiration, witnessing firsthand her unwavering commitment to the code enforcement profession and her passion for fostering a diverse and inclusive environment within the industry.

As a founding member and past president of Women in Code Enforcement and Development of Virginia (WICED-VA), Ms. Jackson has demonstrated exceptional leadership and a deep understanding of the unique challenges faced by women in our field. Her dedication to empowering women code professionals and advocating for their advancement resonates deeply with our organization's core values.
