

2013 Accomplishments

Jefferson County Board of Commissioners

The year 2013 was a busy and productive year for the Board of County Commissioners (BCC), made up of Donald Rosier, Faye Griffin and Casey Tighe. They increased opportunities to interact with their county government, fine-tuned county operations, looked for ways to improve services and laid the groundwork for more innovations and improvements.

Best Building Safety Team is Even Better

An all-new capability, enabled content contribution access to an unprecedented and Facebook, which

The commissioners congratulated Jeffco's Building Safety Division, which is the second largest building department in the U.S. to achieve 100 percent professional certification. Becoming certified demonstrates a commitment to public safety, diverse knowledge of construction safety codes and a high level of self-initiative.

must search for training of the public using the public services like Twitter

Reaching out to more on the topic of county sent simultaneously by successful means of two series of three in-person

5 six telephone town hall meetings and flood recovery. Telephone invitations were randomly selected residents for each town hall. This highly interaction with citizens is a marked improvement over 2011 when the last town hall meetings in different parts of the county brought in only 135 residents.

To celebrate the grand opening of the West Rail line and the Jefferson County Government Center/Golden station, the BCC joined the Regional Transportation District and hosted two days of ribbon cuttings and public tours. A reported 10,000 people arrived at the Jeffco station for the opening day festivities